Student Voices: Using the Career Assessments Transcript

Narrator: Student Voices: Using the Career Assessments. Speaker: Amber Flores, Mt. San Jacinto Community College.

Amber: We were introduced to the career surveys.

Narrator: Career interest tools are shown, including Interest Profiler, Work Values, Intelligence, Personality, and Skills. My Career Plan shows a career list, assessments and top careers.

Amber: So we would go in there and we would fill out all this information and it would match careers that they think best fit like their personalities.

Narrator: Speaker: Ana Castillo, UC San Diego.

Ana: I took many of the assessments provided, including the Interest Profiler and the Multiple Intelligence Assessment. These helped me narrow down what careers I was interested in and which one I really wanted to pursue.

Narrator: Speaker: Kristal Roman, UC Berkeley.

Kristal: I was introduced to the Interest Profiler as I was navigating the college application process to kind of gauge what careers might be a good like fit for me and therefore like what I should go into studying in my college experience. Those assessments have helped gear my college and career choices like more so now.
